

P.M. ON MONDAY. NON-EMERGENCY MAINTENANCE PROBLEMS WILL BE HANDLED ON TUESDAY.

7. Each school is responsible for all health insurance coverage. The AISA, UCA, and Huntingdon College will not assume responsibility regarding injuries, etc. incurred during clinic week.
8. Each girl will bring her own towels, bed linens, pillow, and any other personal items needed. Bring comfortable practice clothes and tennis shoes. Pompons, megaphones, notebooks and pencils will be helpful. Huntingdon College does not allow signs on the walls of gym and lobby.
11. AISA All-Star Tryouts will be Monday. UCA will select the 24 all-stars from the west and the same number from the east. These girls will perform at the AISA All-Star Football and Basketball games during the school year. Cheerleaders should not try out if they are not willing to commit to both all-star events. Schools will be charged the regular fee for all-star cheerleaders who do not perform at the all-star football game. Schools will be charged a $500 fee for all-star cheerleaders who do not perform at the all-star basketball game. (See enclosure)

All-Star Cheerleader Qualification Criteria:

- a. Must be a senior in a member school and attend the AISA sponsored cheerleader clinic.
- b. Must be recommended by your cheerleader coach.
- c. Must be skilled in basic cheerleading stunts.

First time coaches may have questions for or wish to talk with more experienced coaches. If so, call any of the following:

Beth McClendon, Southern Academy, 334-624-8111
Paula Stacey, Monroe Academy, 251-743-3932

Cheerleader coaches may request, in writing, refunds for registered squad members who are unable to attend. Requests must be received by June 18 (West Squads) and by June 25 (East Squads).

More information will follow with your registration confirmation. Any questions should be directed to the AISA office, (334) 833-4080.
