Session #	Room #	Session Description
Featured Speaker		Discovery, Discussion and Demonstration: Richard Byrne, Free Technology for Teachers During this presentation Richard will share free technology tools that are appropriate for use in all grades. The wealth of free apps and websites can feel a bit overwhelming at times. To alleviate that overwhelming feeling, in this presentation Richard outlines the framework he uses for choosing and using technology that is appropriate for the classroom.
A-1		Visual Literacy Practices: Intersections of Visual and Language Arts, Mollie Everitt and Shannon Cabraja, Advent Episcopal School We will present several hands on activities that incorporate skills and concepts of visual art and language arts. We will explore found poetry, narrative necklaces and several other activities/projects. These ideas can be incorporated into a visual arts curriculum, a language arts curriculum or used collaboratively between both disciplines. These projects are geared toward 4th - 7th grade learners. Target Audience – K-6 Teachers
A-2		Smore Tech for Teachers, Margaret Pickett, Cornerstone Christian School Overview of 20+ Web 2.0 tools that teachers can use to enhance instruction, assess student understanding, and engage learners in collaborative activities. Target Audience: K-12 Teachers
A-3		Happy Everyday – Making Learning Fun!, Michelle Newman, Abbeville Christian Academy I will present how I stay happy by teaching, singing, telling stories, using my puppets, pointers and an assortment of fun things! I work every day to make learning fun and exciting. Target Audience: K-6 Teachers
A-4		Flip those Spinners for Plickers and Kahoot!, Andrea Nordan and Karen Dahlberg, South Choctaw Academy Most teachers would prefer a world where all students were intrinsically motivated, but this is just simply not the case. This presentation will introduce Plickers and Kahoot, two game-based learning tools that are sure to make students put down those fidget spinners! Target Audience: K-12 Teachers
A-5		Integrating Technology into the World Languages Classroom, Elizabeth Conner, Saint James School With so many tools available, which can be easily implemented in a world language classroom? Mrs. Conner has been teaching Latin since 1999 and uses technology daily in multiple ways with her students. Please bring your device to use these tools you can incorporate into your pedagogy as well. Target Audience: K-12 Teachers

Session A
10:30am – 11:15am

A-6		History is an Essential Part of Elementary Curriculum, Dr. Mitsy Wilbourne, Meadowview Christian School History in elementary school becomes an interactive, multicurricular, and exciting part of a child's day. Learning history gives our students extra practice in reading, problem solving, and project based learning. It gives children a chance to live and understand different cultures and time periods. It's also the most fun part of my day! Target Audience: K-6 Teachers
A-7		Leadership, Policy, and Student Retention through Streamlined Communication, Dr. Ian Turnipseed, Saint James School This breakout session will focus on how a school will see a return on value by focusing on specifically outlining a strategy for internal and external communication of the leadership goals, policies, rules, story, and admissions information for their school. When there is a streamlined communication strategy to follow for the leadership and educators of a school, the school will see added value in the retention of families as well as adherence to school culture. Target Audience: Administrators, Guidance Counselors, Media Specialist
A-8		Painlessly Weaving the Arts into Your Curriculum, Venna Everett, Saint James School Is there anything else that can be asked of you?
