Using an original song, that was created by someone who owns the rights to the song and gave you these rights to the song.

Received permission to edit a popular song with another popular song.

You need to get permission from all owners of the recording (the record label) and the music composition (the music publishers) before you edit a recording with another recording. This can be time consuming and expensive as you might not get immediate approval from these groups in time for your performance.

Use cover version of popular recordings from past Varsity Spirit Summer Camp Music CDs that you already own. These songs CANNOT be edited together and have to be used as is.
