

OPEN POSITION: UPPER SCHOOL HISTORY AND SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

The upper school history and social studies teacher must be able to communicate effectively through a relational approach, encouraging students to take risks in learning and to demonstrate learning in innovative ways. The upper school history and social studies teacher is a part of the upper school faculty and reports to the upper school principal. All members of the faculty are expected to contribute to chapel and other spiritual development activities and other duties as assigned.

Major responsibilities:

- Prepare appropriate weekly lesson plans including instructional objectives, learning activities and assessments integrated with Biblical foundations
- Utilize appropriate educational technology
- Create and evaluate appropriate instructional and assessment methods
- Maintain appropriate pacing in accordance with the curriculum guide
- Maintain a collaborative relationship with all members of the faculty
- Demonstrate the maturity to inspire student learning and understanding of the age group
- Maintain a positive classroom environment, conducive to learning, yet open to questioning and participation
- Effectively communicate and partner with parents in the educational and spiritual development of students
- Support school initiatives and show support for student interests outside of the school day

QUALIFICATIONS:

Possess a minimum of a Bachelor's degree in history or a related content area

Exhibit a strong faith and exemplary lifestyle.

All applicants must be members of a local church, able to give a strong defense of their faith, and able to sign and abide by the SCA statement of faith to be considered

Must be able to establish and maintain effective professional relationships

Have experience using classroom technology, electronic resources, programs, and platforms

Ability to accept direction and professional development

Ability to exercise good judgment

Please apply by submitting a resume, cover letter, and three references to:

Snook Christian Academy
18930 Co. Rd. 28
Foley, Alabama 36535
Attn: Lori Hadley

or

lhadley@snookchristian.org